

Key area experts

Community Development Corporations personal
 Environmental Protection Agency personal
 Phytoremediation as it relates to cleaning of damaged sites
 Hospital personal

Best Practices

Health monitoring (real time)
 Mobile air pollution related studies and data ohioonline.org
 Army Corps of Engineers
 How to tie all of the information to recreation centers; need of coordinated efforts and community outreach

Specific Data

Hamilton County parks data
 Available open spaces and opportunities for new open spaces
 Brownfields – location and ownership (private)
 Large open spaces
 Hillside areas that should be protected to prevent slippage
 How are hillsides related with streams?
 Health trends between city and suburban areas; weight gain, loss etc.; in order to create interest for people to live in city
 Opportunities for daylight
 Distribution of income, diseases and obesity
 Market analysis for green industry
 Location for polluting industries
 Global climate change data
 Summary of healthcare bill

Information on related planning efforts

Green Umbrella
 Business development plans; economic development plans
 Connectivity to parks in other municipalities

Information on related planning efforts (continued)

Plans in the City of Norwood, Village of St. Bernard etc.

Revive I-75 plan

Metropolitan Sewer District plans

Summary of existing plans as done by other city departments.

Envision Cleveland

Other

Definition of an open space

A visual definition – by land use code, ownership, visual picture

Relationship of open space with the clean air; Carbon Dioxide emissions per acre; how an open space contributes to clean air and health

Cost of maintenance of green spaces

Map showing relationship between play fields, recreation centers, aquatic centers, golf courses. Regional destination discussion as per slide 37

Environmental justice issues

Summary of Federal government health, environment and open space plans (implementation portion at least)

US Department of Housing and Urban Development present and future initiatives