

Housing
Location of concentrations of low-income housing
Location of group homes
Number of multi-family in high-income neighborhoods
Mixed-use buildings and locations
Locations of blight by neighborhood
Historic preservation
Square footage of housing stock
Housing maintenance standards
Proximity to pollution
Condos
Foreclosure
Affordable Housing
Abandoned and Vacant Housing
Tax write-off
Proximity of housing to transit
Absentee owner of rental housing
Owners of housing stock
Investors
Location of lead contaminated housing
Alternative housing for elderly
Condition
Building Code compliance
Impact of low-income housing

Maps
New housing/new renovations (Location 2006/2005)
Mixture of uses in neighborhoods
Mixed-use Buildings
Housing Unit Density
Essential Services (grocery, drug store, etc)
Tree canopy maps
Boundary maps of neighborhoods

Specific Data
Impact of climate change on housing
Noise ordinance
Process for liquor licenses
Inventory of community development corporations (CDC) and their accomplishments
Federal $ and City Capital $, General Fund $
Earned income tax by age and location
Growth in population by neighborhood
Code complaints by type
Location of crime hot spots
Ordinances relative to establishing Community Councils
Bylaws/Community Councils
Newsletters of Community Councils
Districts within neighborhoods
Environmental hazards

Learning about Best Practices and hearing from Key Area Experts
Peter Block - community engagement practices
Does mixed housing really work? (renters/homeowners)
Experts in transportation, education, neighborhood councils
Cincinnati Police Department presence

Other
Accessibility to public transit
Create no bar zone in specific areas
Mix of uses, residential, commercial, industrial within neighborhoods
Homeowner opinion of rental housing in conjunction with owner-occupied
Quality of education/neighborhood viability
Agenda 360 Quality of Place matrix proximity to effective schools
Green space
Walkability to schools
Better public transportation
Civic life and engagement of citizens

Population (continued)
Future demographic trends
Income and training level
Distance to work place
Households with no adult members
Age mix per neighborhood
Relationship of family type and income

Specific Data
Neighborhood boundary maps including disputed areas
City ordinances governing Community Councils (CC)
CC bylaws
Charter
CC Listings (officers, meeting dates, newsletters, websites, membership, email network)
Abandoned buildings in each neighborhood
Is there a plan to deal with this issue? (above)
Do we need to develop a plan? (above)
Which neighborhoods in Cincinnati are considered "successful?"
What are the elements of a "successful" neighborhood?
Which is the largest neighborhood? Smallest?
Population of each neighborhood
Diversity of each neighborhood
Homeownership of each neighborhood
Crime statistics of each neighborhood (CPD)
Cincinnati Public School presence and Community Recreation Center presence in each neighborhood

Info on Planning Efforts
Lessons learned from past City Plans
Neighborhoods with plans and the success rates (housing)
Need social capital survey (place matters)
List of neighborhood content info

Information on related planning efforts
Do tax break/incentives to businesses really generate more business?
Information from cities

Information on related planning efforts (continued)

Income level of each neighborhood

Best Practices/Experts

Leadership in Energy and Environmental Design for Neighborhood Development

Housing units

New ideas about housing

Study successful cities

Comprehensive Community Initiatives/Asset-Based Community Development (place matters)

Form-Based Code (in Neighborhood Business Districts)

Green construction

Local Initiatives Support Coalition for Sustainable Communities

Communication between City and Neighborhoods

John McKnight

Peter Block - Abundant Community

Shaker Heights, Ohio

Police Community Relations

Funding of CDCs

Other Needs

Notice to City when a business is leaving (Economic Development)

Define what makes a good neighborhood (What characteristics and elements of)

Creating a neighborhood center

Other Thoughts

University of Cincinnati study of Cincinnati's system of neighborhoods